

22nd Annual Conference
Embassy Suites Waltham, MA
October 27-28, 2017

APPROVED SPEAKERS/PRESENTATIONS

NAP is pleased to offer 11-12.5 CEUs at this year's annual conference. A final agenda is pending, but the following presentations have been approved for CEU credit. We are providing this listing for those who are eager to register, but have indicated employer approval is pending review of an agenda. Every effort will be made have a final agenda available by September 1, 2017. Should you (or your employers) have any questions, please email Brittany Ryan, 2017 NAP Conference Coordinator at treasurer@napnet.org.

KEYNOTE: Aaron Nelson, PhD, ABPP/CN- Memory in Aging and Neurodegenerative Disease

Rebecca Amariglio, PhD- Neuropsychological Assessment in Preclinical Alzheimer 's Disease

Katrina Boyer, PhD- Neuropsychological Outcome in Sturge-Webber Syndrome (SWS)

Lisa Whipple Drozdick, PhD, Anne-Marie Kimbell, PhD, MSED, and Jennifer Puig, PhD, LP- Digital Technology in Clinical Populations

Tom Erickson, MA, CSP, NCC, LMHC- Private Practice for Psychometrists: Pros and Cons, and Discussion

Christopher Grote, PhD, ABPP/CN- A Practical Update on Ethics in Clinical and Forensic Neuropsychology

Lindsey Hummel, MA, CSP- Ouch! Ergonomic Considerations for Psychometrists

Jennifer Puig, PhD, LP- Neuropsychological Assessment of Children with Neurodegenerative Disorders

Jacqueline Phillips-Sabol, PhD, ABPP/CN- Qualitative and Behavioral Assessment in Adults*

(This presentation has been approved; however there may be scheduling issues which require we eliminate or replace this presentation.)